

EDITH LULE

Regional Site Supervisor

Edith Lule is the Regional Site Supervisor supporting Acclivus, Inc., Enlace Chicago, New Life Centers, and Precious Blood.

Prior to joining Metropolitan Peace Initiatives, Edith was the Education Manager at Candor Health Education, formerly the Robert Crown Center for Health Education.

A product of Chicago Public Schools, she was offered the opportunity to serve the district as a Specialist under the Office of Social and Emotional Learning Office supporting at-risk students (who may fail to earn a high school diploma) across the city. Additionally, she worked with the Office of Student Health and Wellness, leading school communications and technical assistance related to district wellness policies.

Edith began her career providing sexual health and youth development services to young people in North Chicago and Waukegan schools.

Raised in Brighton Park, Edith is the proud daughter of Mexican immigrants. She is a lover of BIPOC arts, an occasional gamer, and a Chicago House Head. Edith holds a B.S. in Community Health from the University of Illinois and a M.Ed. in Higher Education from Loyola University Chicago.
