

MUNA WALKER

Chief Of Staff

Muna Walker joined Metropolitan Family Services in 2023 as Chief of Staff for the Metropolitan Peace Initiatives (MPI).

Since 2004, Muna has been dedicated to improving the lives of youth and families impacted by violence and incarceration. Prior to joining MPI, Muna held multiple positions throughout her eight years at Big Brothers Big Sisters of Metropolitan Chicago (BBBS Metro Chicago), including Director of the Community Based Programs Department, Director of Customer Service and Processing, and Director of Strategy and Innovation. Before joining BBBS Metro Chicago, Muna served as Vice President of Operations for Amachi, Inc., a start-up non-profit dedicated to enhancing the productivity of faith-based mentoring programs. She began her non-profit career in Philadelphia as a Program Officer at Public/Private Ventures, an organization dedicated to improving the lives of children, youth, and families in high-poverty communities.

Before joining the non-profit industry, Muna worked in financial services as a Project Manager and Financial Writer.

Muna holds a MBA from the University of Chicago's Booth School of Business, a MSJ from Northwestern University's Medill School of Journalism, and a BA in Communications from Santa Clara University.
